

JULIE GLAZE HOULIHAN
Music Supervisor

A music supervisor since 1998, Julie began editing her song pitches to picture, and developed into an MPEG Music Editor by 2011. She often performs both jobs on a project, but also enjoys collaborating in one role or the other. Recent projects include A.P. Bio (NBC), The Real O'Neals (ABC), Santa Clarita Diet (Netflix), Natalie Portman's A Tale of Love and Darkness, and music documentaries Hired Gun, OJ: Made in America, and The Wrecking Crew, which earned her a 2016 Guild of Music Supervisors Award.

Julie began her film music career as a music assistant at New Line Cinema (Seven, Set It Off, Friday, Dumb & Dumber), and also worked in creative roles at MCA/Universal Music Publishing and Warner Bros. Television. She has broad experience with on-camera performances, pre-records, Union issues, clearance, budgeting, mixing, ProTools and post production.

Julie is a founding member of The Guild of Music Supervisors. Professional affiliations include Motion Picture Editors Guild, The Television Academy, The Recording Academy, and SAG. She heads the board of Walter Reed Middle School's music program and supports Hamilton High Academy of the Performing Arts, both LAUSD schools.

Julie WON the Guild of Music Supervisors Award in 2016 for Best Music Supervision in a Documentary for The Wrecking Crew!
