

LINDSAY WOLFINGTON

Music Supervisor

Passionate about music and what it brings to the moving picture, Lindsay has been working in Music Supervision for over 20 years. She is known for her work on One Tree Hill, where she featured over 1700 songs from breaking artists to iconic names like Led Zeppelin and U2, and more recently for her work on the Netflix sensations To All the Boys I've Loved Before, To All the Boys: PS I Still Love You, and To All the Boys: Always and Forever.

Lindsay is currently working on Sullivan's Crossing (The CW), XO Kitty (Netflix), Virgin River (Netflix), Theater Camp (Sundance festival favorite), Warrior Nun (Netflix), as well as upcoming films Recipe for Love, Time Cut. She recently finished Amber Brown (Apple TV+), Hello, Goodbye & Everything in Between (Netflix), Love at First Sight (Netflix), Monster High (Nickelodeon), The Thing About Pam (NBC) and Loveboat Taipei (Lionsgate). Her previous work includes Fear Street (Netflix), Atypical (Netflix), Drama Club (Nickelodeon), Hulu's horror anthology Into the Dark, the Christmas rom-com Same Time, Next Christmas (ABC), The Village (NBC), Shadowhunters (FreeForm), and The Royals for E! (Lionsgate). Lindsay also took care of Music Clearance for Fuller House.

She has won 3 Guild of Music Supervisors Awards for her work on To All the Boys I've Loved Before, To All the Boys: PS I Still Love You, and To All the Boys: Always and Forever, and has been nominated 8 times for her work on these films as well as The Royals and The Sing Off. In 2013, Lindsay won the Sunset Sessions Award for "Best Music Supervision in a Reality TV Show."

Lindsay is a graduate of Brown University and currently teaches Music Supervision to graduate students at USC's Thornton School of Music.

Lindsay is the current President of the Guild of Music Supervisors.
